T/150 Any Other Business

The Assistant Principal – Standards & Performance reported that the College had hosted its first Teacher Academy Conference earlier in the day. Around 200 staff took part in a variety of workshops where they were encouraged to reflect on their practice. Staff were challenged and stimulated and appeared to be very engaged and enthusiastic. The Chair commented that the seminars looked very interesting and he would have liked to have been involved if he had been available. The Principal commented that it was extremely important to have a focus on continuous quality improvement and development of staff. It was confirmed that all sessions were delivered by College employees. The Principal opened the conference and it was attended by all staff who have an impact on the teaching, learning and assessment of students.

T/151 Date of next meeting

The date of the next meeting is to be confirmed.
